The crossword puzzle grid consists of a horizontal row of 10 cells and a vertical column of 4 cells. The horizontal row contains the letter 'P' in the first cell, followed by four empty cells, then a cell with a downward-pointing arrow and the number '2' above it, followed by four more empty cells, and finally the letter 'N' in the eighth cell. The vertical column contains the letter 'C' in the top cell, followed by three empty cells. The horizontal row and vertical column intersect at the cell containing the letter 'N'. To the left of the first cell of the horizontal row is a right-pointing arrow and the number '1'. To the right of the top cell of the vertical column is a downward-pointing arrow and the number '3'.
